

This one year program provides students with an in-depth understanding of the video production, audio engineering, television, and radio broadcast industries.

Students who successfully complete our Career Start program will earn credit toward certificates and/or an Associates of Applied Science (AAS) degree at PPSC.

Desirable skills and aptitudes:

Good verbal communication, keyboard skills, teamwork and strong reading/writing skills.

Career Opportunities:

Radio Announcer/Producer
Television Camera Operator
Television Director
Videotape Editor
Copywriter for Radio
Podcaster

Courses May Include:

- RTV1010 Fundamentals & Podcasting (3)
- RTV1000 Introduction to Electronic Media (3)
- RTV1001 Radio Programming & Production I (3)
- RTV1002 Beginning Television (3)
- RTV1003 Writing for TV and Radio (3)
- RTV1011 Gaming, Vlogging, and Lifestyle Video Live Streaming (3)

For more information about Career Start, please visit pikespeak.edu/hsp or call 719.502.3111